

TE WHARE TŪROA AUT REGENERATIVE ENVIRONMENTS RESEARCH NETWORK

Join us for the official launch of Te Whare Tūroa AUT Regenerative Environments Research Network!

Supporting the regeneration of natural and built environments

Our Mission is to catalyse transformation, connect people, and achieve scalable impact.

We already have a huge number of projects making progress and we would love to share these with you during our official launch in AUT Research Week.

Join us to hear:

- What is Te Whare Tūroa?

Find out who we are and what we're doing.

- What's been done so far?

Hear from experts and early career researchers on the progress made to date.

- What's next?

Contribute to a panel discussion on our future direction and how you can get involved.
